The company was founded in 1997 and is headquartered in Bethesda, MD.Marriott InternationalHistoryMarriott was founded byJ. Willard Marriottin 1927 when he and his wife,Alice Sheets Marriott, opened aroot beerstand inWashington, D.C.As aMormon missionaryin the sweltering, humid summers in Washington D.C, Marriott was convinced that what residents of the city needed was a place to get a cool drink.The Marriotts later expanded their enterprise into a chain ofrestaurantsandhotels.They opened their first hotel, the Twin Bridges Marriott Motor Hotel, in Arlington, Virginia, in 1957. Their second hotel, the Key Bridge Marriott inArlington, Virginia, is Marriott Internationals longest operating hotel, and celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2009.Their son, J.W. (Bill) Marriott, Jr., led the company to spectacular worldwide growth during his more than 50-year career. In March 2012, at age 80, he turned the CEO responsibilities over to Arne Sorenson, while he assumed the title of Executive Chairman.Marriott International was formed in 1993 whenMarriott Corporationsplit into two companies, Marriott International andHost Marriott Corporation.In 2002 Marriott International began a major restructuring by spinning off many Senior Living Services Communities (which is now part ofSunrise Senior Living) and Marriott Distribution Services, so that it could focus on hotel ownership and management. The changes were completed in 2003.In April 1995, Marriott International acquired a 49% interest inRitz-Carlton Hotel Company LLC.Marriott International believed that it could increase sales and profit margins for The Ritz-Carlton, a troubled chain with a significant number of properties either losing money or barely breaking even. The cost of Marriotts initial investment was estimated to be about $200 million in cash and assumed debt. The next year, Marriott spent $331 million to take over The Ritz-Carlton, Atlanta and buy a majority interest in two properties owned by William Johnson, a real estate developer who had purchased The Ritz-Carlton,Bostonin 1983 and expanded his The Ritz-Carlton holdings over the next twenty years.The Ritz-Carlton began expansion into the lucrative timeshare market among other new initiatives made financially possible by the deep pockets of Marriott, which also lent its own in-house expertise in certain areas. There were other benefits for The Ritz-Carlton flowing from its relationship with Marriott, such as being able to take advantage of the parent companys reservation system and buying power. The partnership was solidified in 1998 when Marriott acquired a majority ownership of The Ritz-Carlton. Today, there are 81 The Ritz-Carlton properties around the world.TheMarriott World Trade Centerwas destroyed during theSeptember 11, 2001 attacks.Marriott International ownedRamada International Hotels & Resortsuntil its sale on September 15, 2004 toCendant. Explore Tribute Portfolio HotelsMarriott Bonvoy has over 30 hotel brands in more than 10,000 global destinations. While some other hotel loyalty programs have opted to bring properties from acquired brands into their existing brands, Marriott Bonvoy has generally not been hesitant to add a new brand to its program. Hence, the number of Marriott brands will likely continue to grow.But for now, there are 37 Marriott hotel brands, including its new Series by Marriott brand. Here's what you should know about each Marriott brand.Marriott brands overviewMarriott Bonvoy splits its brands into four categories:Luxury: Edition, JW Marriott, Ritz-Carlton, St. Regis Hotels & Resorts; The Luxury Collection and W HotelsPremium: Autograph Collection Hotels, Delta Hotels, Design Hotels, Gaylord Hotels, Le Meridien, Marriott Hotels, Marriott Vacation Clubs, MGM Collection with Marriott Bonvoy, Renaissance Hotels, Sheraton, Tribute Portfolio and Westin Hotels & ResortsSelect: AC Hotels, Aloft Hotels, City Express by Marriott, Courtyard by Marriott, Fairfield by Marriott, Four Points by Sheraton, Four Points Flex by Sheraton, Moxy Hotels, Protea Hotels and SpringHill SuitesLonger stays: Apartments by Marriott Bonvoy, Element, Homes & Villas by Marriott Bonvoy, Marriott Executive Apartments, Residence Inn, Sonder by Marriott Bonvoy, StudioRes and TownePlace SuitesThese categories give you a general idea of the type of service and accommodation to expect at properties within each brand.I'll discuss each brand in more detail in the following sections. Marriott hasn't placed its new Series by Marriott brand into any of these four categories yet, but I assume it will fall into the Select category and will hence discuss it in that section of this article.You'll usually earn an elite qualifying night per night stayed and 10 points per dollar spent; however, I'll note the brands that earn at lower rates.Luxury Marriott brandsThe Marriott Bonvoy portfolio includes six luxury brands.EditionEdition is a Marriott brand focused on being a collection of individualized hotels that offer a curated taste of the locale alongside exceptional style and service. The brand claims to offer a new generation of luxury, but one of the most iconic aspects of the brand for me is the faux fur throw that usually appears somewhere in each room.Daily NewsletterReward your inbox with the TPG Daily newsletterJoin over 700,000 readers for breaking news, in-depth guides and exclusive deals from TPGs expertsThe Bodrum Edition in Turkey. ANDREA ROTONDO/THE POINTS GUYPropertiES often offer an impressive Ritz-Carlton Club to those staying in club-level rooms, but you won't get access to it as a Marriott elite status benefit. However, if you have The Ritz-Carlton Credit Card, you can use the club-level certificates you get as a perk of the card to upgrade select rates to a club-level room at properties that offer these room types.The information for The Ritz-Carlton Credit Card has been collected independently by The Points Guy. The card details on this page have not been reviewed or provided by the card issuer.In addition to standard Ritz-Carlton hotels and resorts, there's also The Ritz-Carlton Yacht Collection.TPG coverage of Ritz-Carlton:St. Regis Hotels & ResortsSt. Regis is one of the top two Marriott brands, competing for the top spot with the Ritz-Carlton brand.Pool at The St. Regis Aruba Resort. LAUREN WASSUM/THE POINTS GUYThe St. Regis motto is "the best address," but the brand is well known for its signature rituals. For example, each St. Regis property prepares a locally inspired bloody mary cocktail. You'll also find afternoon tea, midnight supper and evening rituals at each St. Regis property.TPG coverage of St. Regis Hotels & Resorts:The Luxury CollectionMarriott groups The Luxury Collection into its set of luxury brands, even though it's a collection. The main aspect connecting properties in The Luxury Collection is a passion to help guests become familiar with the destination and connect with local culture.AL MAHA, A LUXURY COLLECTION DESERT RESORT & SPA, DUBAI/MARRIOTTTwo of my favorite Marriott stays have been at properties belonging to The Luxury Collection: Al Maha, a Luxury Collection Desert Resort & Spa, Dubai and The Naka Island, a Luxury Collection Resort & Spa, Phuket in Thailand.
