Color your Worry Monster

Not Worried

A little Worried

VERY Worried

Color the monsters using the color code above, based on how you would feel in each given situation.

Someone calls me home.

I did not do well on a test.

The teacher asks me to read in front of the class.

I have a big project due soon.

Someone asks me to play at recess.

Someone looks at me while whispering to someone else.

I forget to do my homework.

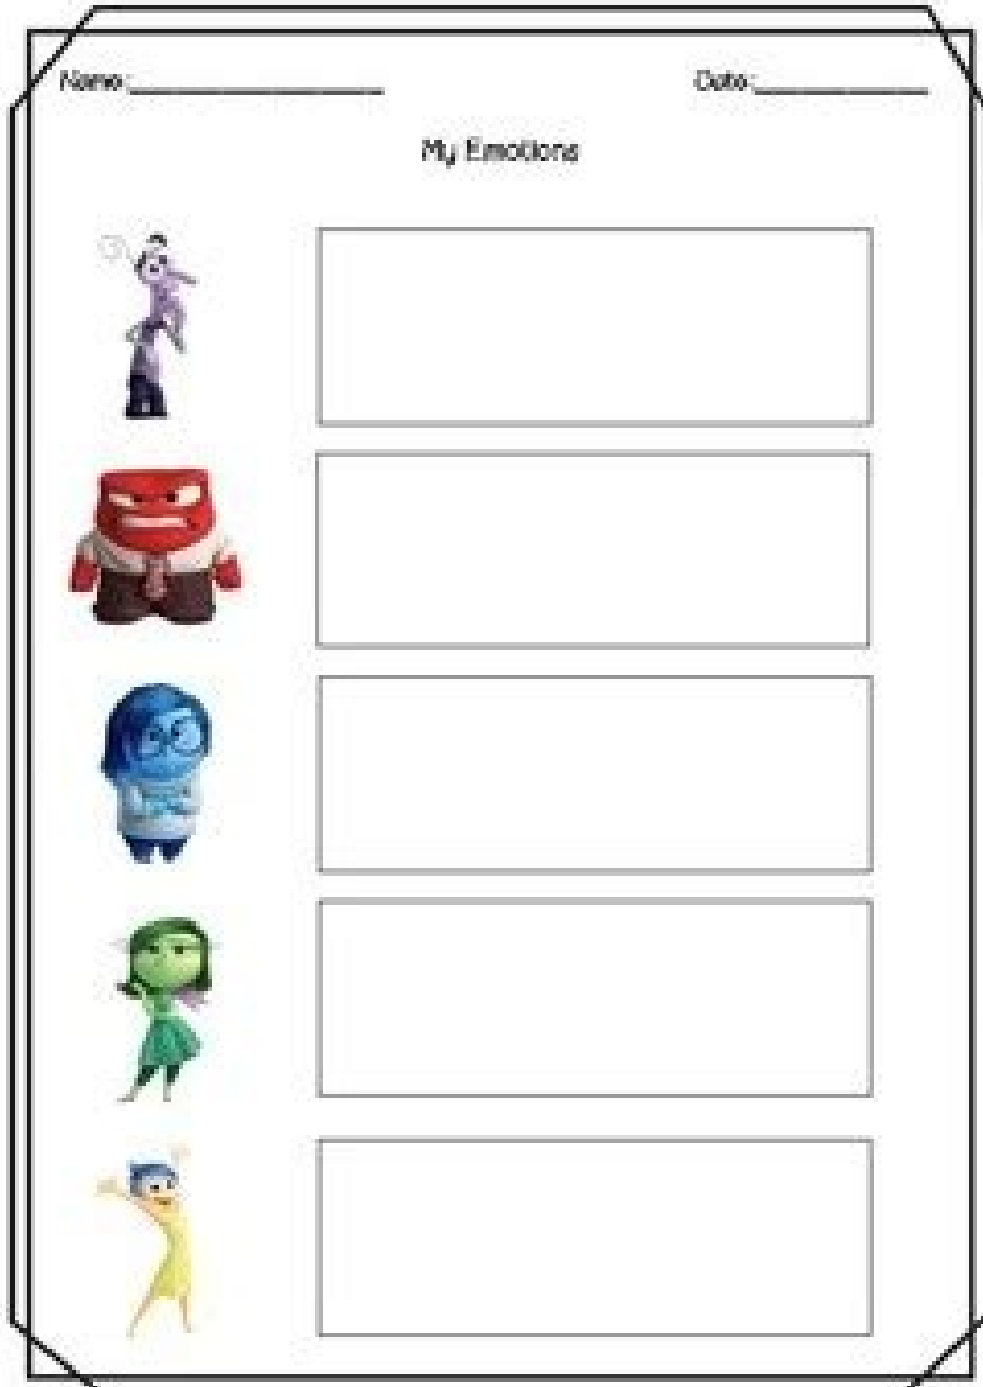

Someone teases on me.

Protect Your Tummy 	Pretend that a hippo has decided to sit on your stomach. Hold your stomach as tight as you can. Keep holding (Hold for 10 seconds.) Hooray, you did it! The hippo has gotten off your stomach. Let your stomach relax.
Chew a Carrot 	Pretend that you are eating a big, crunchy carrot. Bite down on it. We want to turn that carrot into mush! Keep biting (Hold for 10 seconds.) Now relax, the carrot is eaten. Let yourself go as loose as you can.
Get a Fly Off Your Nose 	Pretend a fly has landed on your nose! Without using your hands, try to get him off your nose. Wrinkle up your nose and hold it just as tight as you can (Hold for 10 seconds.) Hooray, you did it! The fly is gone. Now you can just relax. Let your face go back to normal.

If it were me ...  Matt gets called on in class so much more than me.	If it were me ...  Karen is talking forever about what she did yesterday.	If it were me ...  I have to go to the dentist on my birthday.
I'd feel	I'd feel	I'd feel
If it were me ...  I broke my leg and can't go ice skating.	If it were me ...  Bianca called Jasmine fat.	If it were me ...  The pottery I made in art broke in my backpack.
I'd feel	I'd feel	I'd feel
If it were me ...  Lisa told me she couldn't come over, but I saw her with Kim.	If it were me ...  I forgot my lunch bag at home.	If it were me ...  I got the lowest grade on our science test.
I'd feel	I'd feel	I'd feel
