Founded in Tokyo in 2004 by Hironori Yamakawa, this company was among the first in Japan to offer online shopping of used cars for international export. With its cross-border ecommerce site developed exclusively for the firm, the company entered into the global ecommerce business market, selling and exporting used cars. Their selection is versatile: from Japanese-made vehicles to American / European imports that have been used in Japan, from 4-door sedans to buses, trucks, tractors and motorbikes. Sale of auto-parts to expand their range of products and services was added in April, 2015. BE FORWARD's cross-border ecommerce site markets 56 million page views per month (as of May, 2015), an overwhelming number for a used car exporter in Japan, which places the company within the top 15 of Most Frequently Searched companies after Google and Yahoo (often exceeding Wikipedia's ranking) in the dominant African markets including Zambia, Zimbabwe and Malawi. Additionally, the company is aiming for diversified-practices by offering the "Consultancy for Japanese Entities to Venture into African Markets" program and sponsoring the professional football team ("BE FORWARD WANDERERS") in the Republic of Malawi. Currently BE FORWARD is ranked within the top 10 online ecommerce sites in Japan, with Total Annual Revenue of 49.2 billion JPY for '14 - '15 fiscal year. The name, BE FORWARD, reflects our pride and spirit: no matter how many obstacles we encounter in our way and how severe they are, we will overcome them and proudly take steps forward because our goals are always ahead of us, not behind. The name of the company, BE FORWARD, was derived from a phrase by a renowned Rugby football coach, the late Chuji Kitajima. The man who led the herd at Meiji University, one of the best college teams, for 67 consecutive years as their Head Coach, was – and still is – the most well-known man ever in the history of Rugby in Japan. When asked for his autograph, the legendary coach signed his name with an addition of a phrase that signified "Take a Step Forward." It is widely known among Rugby insiders. It was a reflection of the legend's philosophy that his team should "always take steps forward," physically and mentally, even if players were completely defeated and losing the game, because their goal is always ahead of them, not behind. Hironori Yamakawa, also a Meiji University alumnus, was deeply moved by this and decided to name his company after Kitajima's saying. So, hence, "Be (positive and always) (Take a Step) Forward. Going by the slogan "Always Taking A Step Forward" coined by the founder Hironori Yamakawa, this company has helped millions of people to take their lives and businesses to the next level by having access to the best Japanese, Korean, European and American second-hand vehicles on the market. It exports cars to more than 120 countries in the world today.Landing on the BE FORWARD home page is like entering a real brick and mortar car showroom on a massive scale. It is fabulously easy to shop there. This is a huge website. Huge! But despite this, you can navigate to any section of the website easily. For your first time visiting the site, you may want to read BE FORWARD reviews on each vehicle page so that you don't buy blindly. In addition, there might be a number of offers going down depending on the season and time of year, so you can purchase the perfect vehicle for even cheaper!This is a smart website. When you land on the BE FORWARD Japan homepage, it automatically detects your location, and you are brought to the top selling car models in your country. If there is an age limit to the age of the car you can import second hand, you are notified in advance. Not only is the website easy to navigate, it is also fantastic to look at, responsive for your mobile device, and most importantly, offers a wonderful array of used cars in super condition to browse through. This navigability makes it super easy and fast to find the car you need faster. You can filter by make (Toyota, Mitsubishi, Nissan, Honda, Daihatsu, Subaru and so on), by type (SUV, Hatchback, sedan, coupe, station wagon, truck, pick up, van, mini-van, etc.), and more. You can also shop by year of registration, depending on the regulations in your country. You may also like to browse by discount, as there are always great sales going on. These filters are very effective for quickly breaking down larger categories into exactly what you are looking for. The car browsing is quite a shopping experience, more than you will ever get at a regular physical dealership. Click on any vehicle and you can access all of its images and details. If the BE FORWARD Toyota car you are interested in has a dent or a scratch, you can be sure it is clearly revealed beforehand in the pictures. There are multiple images of the interior, front and back, trunk, undercarriage, spare wheel, keys, dashboard, and exterior sides.Honestly, there is no detail missing from the pictures. The only thing not revealed is the VIN number and other identifiable details, which are contained in the official documentation.Buying Page/Importing ProcessThe purchase process is very simple. Firstly, there are thumbnail images of the many parts of the car. On the right side, there are details like the name of the car, year of manufacture and registration, current vehicle price, and specifications.Scroll down the page and you will find a simple form where you are supposed to fill out your name, email and you can also choose the final destination. With that, the final price of the vehicle, plus or minus the port clearing charges will be displayed. That is the final cost from BE FORWARD, and there are no other hidden costs. The buying steps are very straightforward. You do not need any assistance if you know how to operate a computer or a smartphone. The shipping process is also very simple. You will receive a PDF document of the BE FORWARD shipping schedule so that you can see when to expect your car. With many ships, you can know the ports of call for your ship and the help you will get at your port. You buy a car, it will be at the point of sale, which will then be transported to the port of departure. BE FORWARD does everything, so you just have to sit back and wait for your car to arrive. For a beginner the user experience can be a bit daunting, but as you browse the site everything starts falling into place.In most of the countries where BE FORWARD exports second-hand cars, they have regional offices. There are local offices in places such as Mombasa in Kenya, Dar es Salaam in Tanzania, Mongolia, New Zealand, Georgia, Armenia, and many other places in the world. They specialize in clearing and forwarding, as well as helping locals import the cars of their choice from Japan.After-sale Support & ServicesWith regional and country offices, customers can phone in or email for after-sales support any time they need it. However, you should be aware of the working hours.BE FORWARD offers warranty coverage for all the vehicles bought through their site. The coverage differs from one risk to another. Total loss of the vehicle, partial damage of the vehicle, breaking and dents, engine issues, transmission issues, electrical issues, missing items, and wrecker costs are protected under warranty, but should be claimed 30 days after landing at port of arrival or within 7 days after clearing, whichever comes sooner. Many risks are not protected by this warranty. For example, the vessel ferrying the car sinking and expendable parts issues like filters, oils and fluids, brakes, batteries, suspension parts, tires, spark plugs and belts are also not protected by the warranty.After sale service is extended even after you take ownership of your imported BE FORWARD vehicle as you can still contact the company on social media, through their email, through the contact form on the website, and through the nearest local office. Once you buy from this company, the collaboration is for life.Conclusion: Should You Use BFFYEs, you should.
