Although not specifically chosen to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading makes the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable manner progress. The author of the letter to the Jews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in the human nature of him Jesus knew the same sufferings and the tests that are our experience. Because it can â € â € œIs impize with our weaknessesâ €, we can â € â € œInviary the throne of grace to receive mercyâ €. For the author of the Jews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for the redemptive death of him, as well as an invitation to us to visit someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles.
