I saw them grow both intellectually and in their faith. The teachers truly care about the students and want to see them do their best. We moved out of area and are quite sad to leave the schoo. - Posted by Parent - H. WilliamsEndorse Space Coast Christian Academy. Endorsements should be a few sentences in length. Space Coast Christian Academy is a place where the values taught to us by Christ are passed on to a younger generation. We provide of age-appropriate child care and preschool programs that enrich young minds and empower young hearts to be God-loving followers of the Word. Our child care facility is based in Cocoa, Florida where we serve families throughout the community with quality child care for children starting at age 3, who have mastered independent use of the restroom. We believe that each child has individual needs and has a unique pace in developing. What we can do as educators is to guide these children as they tread the path to building skills, practicing values and advancing academically with their peers. The innovative K-12 Curriculum at Space Coast Christian Academy helps students to become better prepared for the advanced stages of learning and for potential college education in a vocation of their choice. We strive to provide our students with the best education possible through our K-12 curriculum which complies with the state-set standards and covers these essential subjects.
