go in this world or the next, love will find you, attend you, and bless you." — Aberjhani, Journey through the Power of the Rainbow: Quotations from a Life Made Out of Poetry "It's not the law of religion nor the principles of morality that define our highways and pathways to God; only by the Grace of God are we led and drawn, to God. It is His grace that conquers a multitude of flaws and in that grace, there is only favor. Favor is not achieved; favor is received." — C. JoyBell C. "Repentance was never yet produced in any man's heart apart from the grace of God. As soon may you expect the leonard to regret the blood with which its fangs are moistened,—as soon might you expect the lion of the wood to abjure his cruel tyranny over the feeble beasts of the plain, as expect the sinner to make any confession, or offer any repentance that shall be accepted of God, unless grace shall first renew the heart." — Charles H. Spurgeon "Divinity for the sake of the simple-minded is beautiful. Those theological assertions you write, say, or live by that you later feel foolish about, it means God still lives in you enough to tell you that they were indeed foolish. By mistakes you know you are alive." — Criss Jami, Salomé: In Every Mile "Maybe if we focused on being light & less on the dark, we might actually see things change." — Michael M. We will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the LORD for the display of His splendor". Isa 61:3" — Njau Kihia "About Kindness, This is just so much for my Soul, and to each one of you, beautiful Flickers of Light and Love. On this Amazing Day of Christmas, I want to send you all a bunch of Happiness and a heartful of My Prayers but above all a Truth that I feel I had the privilege of knowing long back, when I fell in love with God Almighty. The truth is Simple, Kindness is all that Matters. And by Kindness I don't mean the Kindness that looks differently on another but the One that comes with Empathy, the One that flows through Compassion, the One that roots in Love. We just have to understand that everyone is a beautiful person at heart, and no matter how a person behaves or how someone treats you, we just have to stay Kind and know that Somewhere out there Everything we do, has ripples, so let us create ripples in Kindness, in Grace, in Forgiveness, above all in Love. It is very very difficult to forgive a person who hurts us, but when you embody Kindness and practice Grace as an everyday habit, you soon understand how easy it becomes to forgive, because then you look at the Soul who hurt you as a Soul who is trapped in a blockchain of Karma, you understand that you need to release that Soul from your Karmic Cycle by forgiving and leaving it to God, and actually praying for the well-being of that Soul. Every Single Time, you cross path with a Stranger, wear a Smile, it doesn't matter if it is reciprocated or not, just know maybe you just infected a Soul with your Smile, after all like Pain, Happiness is Contagious. Let your Energy be that of Happiness, of Sunshine, you never know who needs your Soul's Rainbow in a drought of rain. Every time you find some way to do good, don't even think about it, just do it. Especially when you find some that it cannot benefit you, because then you know in your Heart you did something just for Him. And that Feeling is beyond any achievement or success, because honestly nothing on Earth is as beautiful as the feeling of Kindness, of knowing that Every Single Day you wake up in this Earth to wear Kindness, that you have a reason to Exist, and that reason is to sprinkle Grace all around, to let every Soul you cross path with feel how Special they are, to Let the World know that Love is alive, that Kindness is the most beautiful prayer of God, the most amazing privilege granted to us. And so I pray to God, today and always, May the Spirit of Christmas be always the most Alive in the Act of Kindness, in the Very breath that we take, for Kindness is about Love and Love is the Root of this Universe in All Ways,

Grace Is "But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me." - 2 Corinthians 12:9 "Therefore no one will be declared righteous in God's sight by the works of the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of our sin. But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus." - Romans 3:20-24 "Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need." - Hebrews 4:16 "The law was brought in so that the trespass might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through reign through lesus Christ our Lord." - Romans 5:20-21 "Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness. For sin shall no longer be your master, because you are not under the law, but under grace." - Romans 6:12-14 "For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people. It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good." - Titus 2:11-14
"The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth. (John testified concerning him. He cried out, saying, "This is the one I spoke about when I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.' ") Out of his fullness we have all received grace in place of grace already given. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known." - John 1:14-18 "For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love he predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us." - Ephesians 1:4-8a "But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. And God raised us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." - Ephesians 2:4-10 "For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich." - 2 Corinthians 8:9 "What then? Shall we sin became poor, so that you know the grace? By no means! Don't you know that when you offer your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich." - 2 Corinthians 8:9 "What then? yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you have come to obey from your heart the pattern of teaching that has now claimed your allegiance. You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness." - Romans 6:15-17 "He has saved us and called us to a holy life—not because of anything we have done but the beginning of time, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel." - 2 Timothy 1:9-10 "Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam, who is a pattern of the one to come. But the gift is not like the trespass For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift followed many trespasses and the gift of God be compared with the result of one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many! Nor can the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification. For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, lesus Christ! - Romans 5:14-17 17 Inspiring Quotes about The Incredible Gift of God's Grace "For we are human weak and prone to wrong, And by Thy grace alone are we made strong." - Henry Coyle, Thankful Heart "In the midst of our failed attempts at loving Jesus, His grace covers us." - Francis Chan, Crazy Love "Repentance, not proper behavior or even holiness, is the doorway to grace. And the opposite of sin is grace, not virtue." - Philip Yancey "If you fear you've written too many checks on God's kindness account, drag regrets around like a broken bumper, huff and puff more than you delight and rest, and, most of all, if you wonder whether God can do something with the mess of your life, then grace is what you need." - Max Lucado, Grace "God's grace is an essential concept for believers to understand, He freely offers His favor to mankind because Jesus; sacrifice on the cross purchased forgiveness and salvation for anyone who believes." -Charles Stanley "Ultimately, grace can never be earned. Like all gifts it can only be received, requiring that I simply open my hands and trust." - Mark Yaconelli, The Gift of Hard Things "The Gospel of Grace leaves no room for boasting and if we do not let the truth, that grace is unmerited, that the Father is that generous, have full reign in our hearts, then we will always seek to add our tuppence worth (just to be sure)." - Phelim Doherty, By the Grace of God "The grace that God gives is amazing. Through Jesus, He forgives our sins when we don't deserve it and have no way to earn it." - Adam Cumpston, 30 Days to Overcoming Depression and Anxiety "Grace is the first and last moving cause of salvation; and faith, essential as it is, is only an important part of the machinery which grace employs. We are saved 'through faith,' but salvation is 'by grace'." - Charles H. Spurgeon, All of Grace "When you truly realize what God has done for you, His love, grace and forgiveness begin to transform every area of your life." - Jennifer Carter, Women of Courage "But God's grace is also exhibited when we humbly bow before Christ in repentance and faith, for then we find forgiveness. Thank God for His grace, for without it we would have no hope!" Billy Graham, Hope for Each Day "It is because we are saved by grace that grace then works in our lives to accomplish God's grace." - Carl R. Trueman, Grace Alone---Salvation as a Gift of God "This is what grace does. It rescues us from our spiritual blindness. It releases us from our bondage to our rationalism and materialism. Grace gives us the faith to be utterly assured of what we cannot see. It frees us from refusing to believe in anything we cannot experience with our physical senses. But grace does more. It connects us to the invisible One in an eternal love relationship that fills us with joy we have never known before and gives us rest of heart that we would have thought impossible. And that grace is still rescuing us, because we still tend to forget what is important, real, and true. We still tend to have a heavenly Father. Grace has done a wonderful thing for us and continues to do more and more." — Paul David Tripp, New Morning Mercies: A Daily Gospel Devotional "Without a heart transformed by the grace of Christ, we just continue to manage external and internal darkness." — Matt Chandler, The Explicit Gospel "Grace is the free, undeserved goodness and favor of God to mankind." - Matthew Henry "Grace does not depend on what we have done for God but rather what God has done for us. Ask people what they must do to get to heaven and most reply, "Be good." Jesus' stories contradict that answer. All we must do to get to heaven and most reply, "Be good." Jesus' stories contradict that answer. All we must do to get to heaven and most reply, "Be good." Jesus' stories contradict that answer. All we must do is cry, "Help!"" - Philip Yancey "We are justified, not by giving anything to God, - what we do, - but by receiving from God what Christ hath done for us." - William Gurnall We hope you enjoyed these 30 Inspiring Quotes about How Amazing God's Grace Is. To read 25 Grace Bible Verses, click here. Work that Will Make Your Day Better What is honor, and the favor of creatures - so long as I lack the favor of God, the pardon of my sins, a saving interest in Christ, and the hope of glory! O Lord, give me these, or I die! Give me these, or else I shall eternally die! Repentance means a change of mind. Formerly, I thought sin as a pleasant thing, but now I have changed my mind about it. Formerly, I thought the world an attractive place, but now I think differently. Once I thought certain things delightful, now I think them vile. Once I thought other things utterly worthless, now I think them most precious. That is a change of mind, and that is repentance. Prayer is the converse of the soul with God. Therein we manifest or express to Him our reverence, and love for His divine perfection, our gratitude for all His mercies, our penitence for our sins, our hope in His forgiving love, our submission to His authority, our confidence in His care, our desires for His favour, and for the providential and spiritual blessings needed for ourselves and others. Grace has many definitions, one of which is to give favor to someone not worthy. But, God's grace works differently; it's given to everyone without any criteria or standards. Because His grace is only His to offer, no one and nothing can get in the way of it. So, if you feel like you don't deserve His grace is only His to offer, no one and nothing can get in the way of it. So, if you feel like you don't deserve His grace and presence without you even noticing. That's how awesome God is! Continue reading the list below. And make sure to check out these God quotes and trust God quotes and trust God quotes to rescue passionately, and to restore justly—what rivals it? Of all His wondrous works, grace, in my estimation, is the magnum opus." - Max Lucado 2. "Your worst days are never so bad that you are beyond the reach of God's grace. "- Jerry Bridges 3. "The story of grace includes a broad range of characters—rich, poor, powerful, and powerless. For all of them, it is God's grace that tips the scale in their favor. In some ways, these stories are our stories. For like the individuals who populate the pages of Scripture, we, too, need grace. But not just any grace. The grace of God works anyway." - Rick Renner 5.
 "What gives me the most hope every day is God's grace; knowing that His grace is going to give me the strength for whatever I face, knowing that nothing is a surprise to God." - Rick Warren 6. Encourage You to Be More Grateful for What You Receive? God's grace is more than just His forgiveness. His grace is a gift He freely gives us despite our sins, and all He asks in return is for us to pass it on to others. As you receive His grace, it's important to remember some of the wise words you've read from this collection. God gives grace to humble and compassionate people. So, it's essential to keep this in mind, especially when you know you've received an abundance of His blessings. Most importantly, you must never forget that God's grace is always present. Never doubt its existence since the most significant proof of God's grace is Jesus Christ and His ultimate sacrifice. Because of what Jesus did, we are freed from our sins and saved from eternal damnation. With that, we hope we were able to give you a clearer picture of how God's grace manifests itself in your life.
