"We use your phrase of completion worksheets in my class to help students prepare for the repeated practice SAT really helps my students grab how they work." - Daniel A., Austin, TX, 02/07/12 Like these materials? Show your support from our sympathy on facebook ... call us crazy (or simply obsessed with English and logic), but we think that sentences are just pure fun. What's more, I'm a great way to expand your vocabulary and improve your logic ability. This because completion of phrase, like many of the questions style of standardized tests on this site (analogies, opposing, understanding, etc.), are very similar to puzzles. You have a picture of what the final product should be similar, but it is still necessary to reorganize the pieces until you can make that photo. Scroll down to view the complete list of completion of worksheets suitable for all ages and ability levels. In completion phrase to print worksheets below, students must select the best words from a list of 5 response options to fill empty blank spaces in sentences. Some sentences contain a single space, while others contain two. These worksheets are very effective in improving vocabulary, syntax, and those understanding conjunctions as syntactic "road signs". Finally, it is reminded that this is protected by copyright work to be used only by teachers at school or at home. Hey! Take a look at this useful teacher suggestion! Teachers can strengthen the role conjunctions perform in sentences, showing students as the conjunction determines the answer to certain questions. For example, check the questions in the diagram below. See how the conjunction said the answer in every question. Note that when the conjunction is and the correct answer is love. This is because the connotation of the first clause is continued. However, when the conjunction is that the correct answer is hatred. This is because the connotation of the first clause is not continued in the second clause; It is reversed due to the role played by the conjunction, but.
