l'm not a bot

Loot, die. Loot, die. Loot, Die. This is the typical gameplay loop of any survival crafting game, but something about DayZ keeps you coming back for more, every time. Ask any veteran survivor and theyll tell you the tale of the map to the deafening silence of the west? Maybe they came across a long fought battle and scavenged the bodies for their spoils. Perhaps they even encountered a friendly person who offered them a rifle. These are just a small sample of the many ways you will come across loot in your time in the ruins of Chernarus, and to help you on your journey. Ive put together a list of my top fifteen places to gather loot, to give you the knowledge you need to get the edge on other survivors!15. Svetloyarsk (Best for early game) The start of your survival in Chernarus will start on a coastline, either the south or the east, and those spawning on the east, and those spawning on the east are highly suggested to push north to end up in the medium-sized city of Svetloyarsk. A port city sitting on Guba Bay, the city holds some of the best locations to gear up with an easier chance of survival than one of the larger cities. This does not mean to be complacent, theres always a chance someone is nearby. The harbor itself has tons of cargo containers for you to search through, containing everything from clothes, to canned food, to even military gear. A large police station in town containing good clothes, ammo, and firearms such as CR-75s and CR-61 Scorpions. A medical center in town to let you stockpile bandages and medicine for your travels ahead. There is a decent chance of contact with other survivors here, as it is a possible spawn point, so be wary. Location 14. Rify (Best for late game)In the north-east of the country, a massive cargo ship ran aground at some point in the past few years, and its containers have been strewn around the rocky coastline. However, the ship carried a chemical weapon that has created a toxic fallout over the surrounding area, some even believe this is ground zero of the infection. Survivors wishing to explore the area must come heavily prepared. The cargo containers here are packed full of some of the rarest loot in the game, such as the illusive 40mm gas grenades. Anyone exploring this area will come away with a haul to tell your group about. Due to the gas, a set of NBC gear is required to enter this location. Only a few kilometres north of Berezino and a stones throw south-east of Svetloyarsk, this location is a possible hotspot for activity, and given the requirement of possessing a full set of NBC gear, only high geared players will be about. Location 13. Krasnostav/Northeast Airfield (Best for medical supplies) Located just to the southwest of our previous two locations, the sizable town of Krasnostav is home to a small police station, a supermarket, a medical centre, and a large airstrip. The airstrip itself has been converted to an ad hoc field hospital due to the outbreak, giving it a mass amount of medical supplies. Due to the airstrip itself has been converted to an ad hoc field hospital due to the outbreak, giving it a mass amount of medical supplies. wary of snipers. One of the most gear-diverse areas in the game, with everything from basic supplies, to military rifles and equipment, in a two square kilometer location. Proximity to the coast, abundance of medical supplies, and largely hilly geography also allows for you to enter relatively unnoticed from the south, as it backs up to dense forest from that direction. The town and field hospital are targets for sporadic chemical artillery attacks, watch for the flare and listen for the distant shots. Location 12. Radio Zenit (Best for early game) A major radio station broadcast from here for years, but as the outbreak occurred, it was requisitioned by the Chernarussian Defence Force to communicate to the region. Sometime after this, the freshly built outpost was overrun, and the ruins are all that remain, looming over the small town of Gorka. Tread lightly, as the bright red radio mast can be seen for miles, beckoning any survivor to it. Very good military loot spawn, with several tents, buildings, and vehicles. It sits atop a hill, which helps against far off snipers. The hilltop location also makes spotting people a bit harder when theyre coming from the southern forest. Nearby Gorka has good civilian loot, but both the station and town are targets for chemical weapon attacks. Location 11. Nadezhda (Best for hunting supplies) Nestled in the hills and forests of Chernarus are several holiday and summer camps, one of the best of which is Nadezhda. Located south of Novy Sobor, this camp is stocked with hunting gear and has a large medical center. weapons rather regularly. The small size allows you to clear it out fast and easily. It is relatively out of the way, so the chance of meeting other survivors is relatively low. Chemical weapon attacks are a large threat here. Location 10. Tisy Military Base (Best for late game) Deep in the woods to the farthest northeast corner of the country, word has it there is a large military installation that is fully abandoned, filled instead with infected. The military is constantly bombarding it with chemical attacks in a feeble attempt to either quell the outbreak, or to dissuade would be scavengers from entering. This is the El Dorado of Chernarus, you must be fully geared and ready to fight if you want to get into, and out of Tisy alive. The ultimate in loot locations, dozens of military buildings spread over the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in the base. Massive heavily armed and should always be treated as hostile.Location9. Northwest Airfield/Vybor Air Base (Best for military gear) The largest military gear) The largest military gear) The largest military gear) The largest military gear) and the most dangerous for combat. Long, open sightlines and minimal cover make it a death trap for those without the knowledge of field combat. This, coupled with the near constant CDF chemical artillery shelling, makes it a place of death and destruction. Survivors entering are warned. Massive amount of loot, second only to Tisy. Extremely dangerous place where you will come under fire. Avoid the runways themselves, as they have no cover. Loot quickly and quietly, always looking and listening. Location8. SKVSCh Biathlon Arena (Best for food) Sitting well above the clouds in the far west, Saint Roman is the highest point you can get to, naturally anyway. Built around it is the small sports city of the SKVSCh Biathlon Arena, a place once heralded for its competitions and tests of skill. Now, it sits abandoned, but there is still a good amount of gear strewn about. Very rarely trafficked, so there is little chance of danger. Good amount of food and medical supplies. Interesting and unique area. Location 7. Sinistok is a tiny town situated in the grasslands. A farming community before the outbreak, Sinistok is packed full of civilian gear and many fruit trees. Be wary as this is a common route to Tisy. Typically a quiet town with tons of food and civilian gear. There is a decent chance of encountering other survivors, as the town is on the way to the back entrance to Tisy. Natural geography gives a great spot to the north to overwatch the town. Location 6. Pavlovo Military Base (Best for late game) Just inland to the far southwest is the town of Pavlovo, and its military base. Many claim there to be deeply hidden government secrets here, as the chemical gas has never dissipated from the area. gear to enter. It is home to multiple barracks, several workshops, and one of the few actual hospitals in the region. Low chance to find gas grenades, a rare and extremely strong weapon that can clear an entire building. Location 5. Chernogorsk (Best for early game) Easily the largest city in the region, and one of the most populated as well, Chernogorsk is the regions capital. Cherno, with itsa massive port full of long forgotten cargo containers, plus hundreds of buildings, has over five square kilometers of area for you to search through.
There is an immeasurable amount of possible places to loot. Large spawn area, so you will encounter other survivors. The port area alone is full of too many cargo containers to loot on your own. Location4. Berezino (Best for early game) On the eastern coastline lies a sizable town has a good sized port, a railyard, and an overall industrial town layout. There will be plenty of other survivors here to slay, or ally with. The center of town holds a massive orchard of apple trees for you to stock up on food.Spawn town, be careful of others.Massive orchards make for easy food.Dock and railyard carry a large amount of loot.Location3. Severograd (Best for food and clothes) The northern highway is the longest and straightest route to the west. Those making the trek will find the city of Severograd an enticing place to stop at gear up for the rest of the journey. Be warned: Severograd is typically a warzone, with many uneasy neighbours attempting to lay claim to the area. A large, dense urban area with a lot of loot. The waterway running along the main thoroughfare makes navigating from the north to the south difficult, especially under fire. Always keep your eyes up and ears open for any movement or sounds. Location2. Kamensk Military Base, a place most veteran survivors will avoid. While the possibility of rifles and ammo may make a rooky salivate the base is a death trap. Its on the side of a hill, with more tree cover than the Amazon. The ground is covered in thick grass that a man can crouch through, and dont get me started on whats in the underground. Great place for high tier military loot spawns. Geography makes it easy for anyone to sneak into, use this to your advantage, but be just as wary of others using it. Underground bunkers carry dark lore implications I wont spoil. Great place for vehicle parts. Location1. Topolniki is a small industrial town in the northwest that sits along the northern highway. An extremely quiet town that is rarely travelled, survivors would do well to take advantage of looting here and taking their time. The fields around Topolniki appear to be a magnet for helicopters, as several wrecks are usually spotted in the area. Helicopter crashes spawn regularly around the town. It sits alongside a river, and has many orchards in it for food and water. Barely travelled so the danger level is low. There is tons of industry around for all your base building and vehicle needs.LocationAlso Be Sure To Read: [Top 10] DayZ Best Weapons and How To Get Them (2020 Edition) [Top 10] DayZ Best Base LocationsAnd Why They're So Good[Top 10] DayZ Best Base LocationsAnd Why They're So Good[Top 10] DayZ Best Base LocationAlso Be Sure To Read: [Top 10] DayZ Best Base LocationsAnd Why They're So Good[Top 10] DayZ Best Base LocationsAnd Why They're So Their Own Way)Email us about this articleYou May Also Be Interested In: Welcome back, survivors! Today, we're diving deep into the world of DayZ to uncover the best locations for loot, hiding, and ultimately, survival. Whether you're a seasoned veteran or a fresh spawn, knowing where to go and what to expect is crucial. So, grab your gear and let's get started!1. Understanding the MapBefore we dive into the specifics, it's important to have a good grasp of the DayZ map. Chernarus is a vast and diverse landscape filled with forests, cities, and coastal areas. Each region has its own unique challenges and opportunities. The northern regions are generally colder and more dangerous, while the southern coasts offer warmer climates and easier access to resources. Your first step should always be to familiarize yourself with the map and plan your route accordingly. It's easy to get lost or overwhelmed, so having a mental map or even a physical one can be a lifesaver.2. Best Spots for LootingLooting is the lifeblood of DayZ. Without the right gear, you're as good as dead. So, where should you head for the best loot?2.1. Military Bases are the holy grail of looting spots. They're also highly contested areas. The Northwest Airfield (NWAF) and Tisy Military Bases are two of the most popular spots. NWAF is great for early-game looting, with plenty of buildings to explore and a relatively low risk compared to Tisy. Tisy, on the other hand, is a late-game hotspot with some of the most dangerous areas due to its popularity among players. 2.2. Industrial areas like Novodmitrovsk and Elektrozavodsk are excellent for mid-tier loot. These areas are often less contested than military bases but still offer a good variety of supplies. You can find tools, food, and even some decent weapons. The key here is to be thorough in your search. Don't just rush through; take your time to explore every nook and cranny 2.3. Supermarkets and HospitalsSupermarkets and hospitals are great for specific types of loot. Supermarkets are obviously fantastic for food and drink, while hospitals are your go-to for medical supplies. The Chernogorsk Hospital and Berezino Supermarket are two popular spots. Remember, though, that these areas can be hotspots for player interactions, so keep your wits about you.3. Hiding Spots: Staying Under the RadarSometimes, the best strategy is to lay low and avoid confrontation. Knowing where to hide can mean the difference between life and death. Here are some top hiding spots: 3.1. ForestsForests are the classic hiding spots staying Under the RadarSometimes, the best strategy is to lay low and avoid confrontation. small cabins or hunting stands to take shelter in. The Green Mountain area is a great example. It's remote, has plenty of trees for cover, and even a few deer stands to keep an eye out for threats. Just be careful not to get lost; it's easy to lose your bearings in the thick of the woods.3.2. Abandoned villages offer a good balance between loot and safety. They're often overlooked in favor of more popular spots, but they can still yield decent supplies. Places like Stary Sobor and Gorka are perfect examples. They're quiet, have a few buildings to loot, and are generally less dangerous than larger towns.3.3. Underground BunkersUnderground bunkers are the ultimate hiding spots They're rare, but if you can find one, you're golden. The Vybor Military Base has a few bunkers that are worth checking out. They're usually packed with high-tier loot and offer excellent protection from both players and zombies. Just be sure to clear them out thoroughly before settling in.4. High-Risk, High-Reward AreasIf you're feeling brave and want to take on some high-risk areas for potentially massive rewards, there are a few spots you should consider: 4.1. Prison Island is packed with high-tier loot, including military-grade weapons and gear. However, getting there is a challenge in itself. You'll need a boat, and once you're there, you'll be isolated with no easy escape routes. It's a high-stakes gamble, but if you pull it off, you'll be set for a while.4.2. Balota AirfieldBalota dangerous. However, it also has a good variety of loot, including medical supplies, weapons, and even some military gear. If you can handle the heat, it's worth a visit.4.3. Myshkino Tents are packed with high-tier loot, including military gear and weapons. The key here is to be quick and efficient. Don't linger too long, as other players will likely be on their way.5. Best Spots for Vehicle PartsVehicles are a game-changer in DayZ. They allow you to travel faster and carry more loot. But first, you need to find the parts to fix them up. Here are some top are spots for vehicle parts: 5.1. Industrial Zones and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. Reep an eye out for car wrecks, as they can also yield valuable parts. 5.2. Garages and Gas StationsGarages and gas stations are also great descent and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories and warehouses that often contain vehicle parts. The set bet for vehicle parts are used with factories for vehicle parts. They're often overlooked in favor of more obvious loot spots, but they can yield some valuable finds. The Kamyshovo Gas Station and the Chernogorsk Garages are good examples. Remember to check both inside and outside the buildings, as parts can be scattered around 5.3. Military Checkpoints Are another good spot for vehicle parts. They often have military vehicles parked nearby, which can be a goldmine for parts. The checkpoint north of Zelenogorsk is a great example. It's often less contested than other military areas. 6. Survival Tips for Each LocationKnowing where to go is one thing, but knowing how to survive once you're there is another. Here are some survival tips for each location type:6.1. Military Bases Military Bases are dangerous, so you need to be on your toes. Here are some tips:Stay low and move slow. Running will attract attention. Clear buildings methodically. Don't rush; take your time to check each room.Watch your corners. Players can be sneaky. so always check your blind spots.6.2. Industrial areas can be maze-like, so here are some tips to help you navigate:Use the rooftops. They provide a good vantage point and can help you spot threats. Check inside vehicles. They can contain valuable loot. Be wary of open spaces. They can leave you exposed to snipers.6.3. ForestsForests offer great cover, but they can also be disorienting. Here are some tips: Use landmarks to navigate. Things like unusual trees or rocks can help you keep your bearings. Stick to the edges. It's easier to spot threats and you're less likely to get lost. Keep quiet. best strategy is to avoid combat altogether. Mastering the art of evasion can keep you alive longer and help you build up your gear. Here are some tips: Use the environment. Trees, bushes, and buildings can all provide cover. Move unpredictably. Don't run in a straight line; zigzag to throw off your pursuer's aim. Use decoys. Things like smoke grenades or even loud noises can distract pursuers.8. Building Your BaseOnce you've gathered enough supplies, you might want to consider building your base: A well-built base can provide safety, storage, and a place to craft. Here are some tips for building your base: A well-built base can provide safety, storage, and a place to craft. massive base will attract attention. Start with a small, defensible structure. Use traps and tripwires can deter would-be raiders. 9. Crafting and repairing Crafting and repairing are essential skills in DayZ. They allow you to create new items, fix broken gear, and even build structures. Here are some tips to help you master these skills:Learn the recipes. DayZ has a complex crafting system, so take the time to learn what you need.Gather materials efficiently. Don't waste time running back and forth; plan your routes to gather everything you need in one go.Practice makes perfect. The more you craft and repair, the better you'll get.10. Community and AlliancesDayZ can be a lonely place, but it doesn't have to be. Building alliances and joining communities can greatly enhance your survival chances. Here are some tips for building relationships in DayZ:Be cautious but open. Not everyone is out to get you, but be wary of new encounters. Communicate clearly. Use the in-game chat to communicate your intentions. Join a clan. Clans can provide support, resources, and a sense of community. ConclusionDayZ is a complex and challenging game, but with the right knowledge and strategies, you can thrive. Knowing the best locations for loot, hiding, and survival is crucial. Whether you're hitting up military bases for high-tier gear or hiding out in the forests to avoid danger, each location has its own unique challenges and opportunities. So, gear up, stay alert, and most importantly, have fun!FAQWhat are the best spots for early-game looting? Supermarket and Elektrozavodsk are great starting points. How can I avoid combat in high-risk areas requires a combination. Use the environment for cover, and move unpredictably to throw off pursuers. Decoys like smoke grenades can also be helpful.What are the best spots for vehicle parts?Industrial zones, garages, and gas stations are the best spots for vehicle parts. Should I build a base in DayZ?Building a base in DayZ can provide safety, storage, and a place to craft. However, it also attracts attention. If you decide to build a base, choose your location wisely, start small, and use traps to deter raiders. A well-built base can greatly enhance your survival chances. Loot, die. DayZ keeps you coming back for more, every time. Ask any veteran survivor and theyll tell you the tale of the first time they found an M4 or an AK. Did they make the lengthy trek across the map to the deafening silence of the west? Maybe they came across a long fought battle and scavenged the bodies for their spoils. Perhaps they even encountered a friendly person who offered them a rifle. These are just a small sample of the many ways you will come across loot in your time in the ruins of Chernarus, and to help you on your journey, Ive put together a list of my top fifteen places to gather loot, to give you the knowledge you need to get the edge on other survivors! 15. Svetloyarsk (Best for early game) The start of your survival in Chernarus will start on a coastline, either the south or the east, and those spawning on the east are highly suggested to push north to end up in the medium-sized city of Svetloyarsk. A port city sitting on Guba Bay, the city holds some of the best locations to gear up with an easier chance of survival than one of the larger cities. This does not mean to be complacent, theres always a chance someone is nearby. The harbor itself has tons of cargo containing good clothes, to canned food, to even military gear. A large police station in town containing good clothes, ammo, and firearms such as CR-75s and CR-61 Scorpions. A medical center in town to let you stockpile bandages and medicine for your travels ahead. There is a decent chance of contact with other survivors here, as it is a possible spawn point, so be wary. Location 14. Rify (Best for late game) In the north-east of the country, a massive cargo ship ran aground at some point in the past few years, and its containers have been strewn around the rocky coastline. However, the ship carried a chemical weapon that has created a toxic fallout over the area must come heavily prepared. The cargo containers here are packed full of some of the rarest loot in the game, such as the illusive 40mm gas grenades. Anyone exploring this area will come away with a haul to tell your group about. Due to the gas, a set of NBC gear is required to enter this location. Only a few kilometres north of Berezino and a stones throw south-east of Svetloyarsk, this location is a possible hotspot for activity, and given the requirement of possessing a full set of NBC gear, only high geared players will be about.Location13. Krasnostav/Northeast Airfield (Best for medical supplies)Located just to the southwest of our previous two locations, the sizable town of Krasnostav is home to a small police station, a supermarket, a medical centre, and a large airstrip. The airstrip itself has been converted to an ad hoc field hospital due to the outbreak, giving it a mass amount of medical supplies. Due to the amount of supplies, and the natural geography of the area, survivors entering the area must be wary of snipers. One of the most gear-diverse areas in the game, with everything from basic supplies, to military rifles and equipment, in a two square kilometer location. Proximity to the coast, abundance of medical supplies, and largely hilly geography make it a hunting ground for skilled marksmen, and a near constant warzone. The geography make it a hunting ground for skilled marksmen, and a near constant warzone. The geography make it a hunting ground for skilled marksmen, and a near constant warzone. The geography also allows for you to enter relatively unnoticed from the south, as it backs up to dense forest from that direction. The town and field hospital are targets for sporadic chemical artillery attacks, watch for the flare and listen for the distant shots. Location 12. Radio Zenit (Best for early game)A major radio station broadcast from here for years, but as the outbreak occurred, it was requisitioned by the Chernarussian Defence Force to communicate to the region. Sometime after this the freshly built outpost was overrun, and the ruins are all that remain, looming over the small town of Gorka. Tread lightly, as the bright red radio mast can be seen for miles, beckoning any survivor to it. Very good military loot spawn, with several tents, buildings, and vehicles. It sits atop a hill, which helps against far off snipers. The hilltop location also makes spotting people a bit harder when theyre coming from the southern forest. Nearby Gorka has good civilian loot, but both the station and town are targets for chemical weapon attacks. Location11. Nadezhda (Best for hunting supplies) Nestled in the hills and forests of Chernarus are several holiday and summer camps, one of the best of which is Nadezhda. Located south of Novy Sobor, this camp is stocked with hunting gear and has a large medical center. Some believe an outbreak may have occurred early on here, as the CDF seems to shell it with chemical weapons rather regularly. The small size allows you to clear it out fast and easily. It is relatively out of the way, so the chance of meeting other survivors is relatively low. Chemical weapon attacks are a large threat here. Location 10. Tisy Military Base (Best for late game) Deep in the woods to the farthest northeast corner of the country, word has it there is a large military installation that is fully abandoned, filled instead with infected.
The military is constantly bombarding it attacks in a feeble attempt to either quell the outbreak, or to dissuade would be scavengers from entering. This is the El Dorado of Chernarus, you must be fully geared and ready to fight if you want to get into, and out of Tisy alive. The ultimate in loot locations, dozens of military buildings spread over the base. Massive amount to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base, not counting the looting youll need to do to get geared enough to survivors here will be heavily armed and should always be treated as hostile. Location 9. Northwest Airfield/Vybor Air Base (Best for military gear) The largest military installation by area, and the most dangerous for combat. Long, open sightlines and minimal cover make it a death trap for those without the knowledge of field combat. This, coupled with the near constant CDF chemical artillery shelling, makes it a place of death and destruction. second only to Tisy.Extremely dangerous place where you will come under fire.Avoid the runways themselves, as they have no cover.Loot quickly and quietly, always looking and listening.Location8. SKVSCh Biathlon Arena (Best for food) Sitting well above the clouds in the far west, Saint Roman is the highest point you can get to, naturally anyway Built around it is the small sports city of the SKVSCh Biathlon Arena, a place once heralded for its competitions and tests of skill. Now, it sits abandoned, but there is still a good amount of food and medical supplies. Interesting and unique area. Location7. Sinistok (Best for food) Sitting between the Biathlon Arena to the southwest and the Tisy Military Base to the north, Sinistok is a tiny town situated in the grasslands. A farming community before the outbreak, Sinistok is packed full of civilian gear and many fruit trees. Be wary as this is a common route to Tisy. Typically a quiet town with tons of food and civilian gear. There is a decent chance of encountering other survivors, as the town is on the way to the back entrance to Tisy. Natural geography gives a great spot to the north to overwatch the town. Location 6. Pavlovo, and its military base. Many claim there to be deeply hidden government secrets here, as the chemical gas has never dissipated from the area. Guaranteed to be full of high quality military equipment. Anyone willing to search must have a full set of NBC gear to enter. It is home to multiple barracks, several workshops, and one of the few actual hospitals in the region. Low chance of other survivors, given the requirement to wear NBC gear. There is a chance to find gas grenades, a rare and extremely strong weapon that can clear an entire building. Location 5. Chernogorsk is the regions capital. Cherno, with its a massive port full of long forgotten cargo containers, plus hundreds of buildings, has over five square kilometers of area for you to search through. There is an immeasurable amount of possible places to loot. Large spawn area, so you will encounter other survivors. The port area alone is full of too many cargo containers to loot on your own. Location 4. Berezino (Best for early game) On the eastern coastline lies a sizable town known as Berezino. The town has a good sized port, a railyard, and an overall industrial town holds a massive orchard of apple trees for you to stock up on food. Spawn town, be careful of others. Massive orchards make for easy food. Dock and railyard carry a large amount of loot. Location3. Severograd (Best for food and clothes) The northern highway is the longest and straightest route to the west. Those making the trek will find the city of Severograd an enticing place to stop at gear up for the rest of the journey. Be warned: Severograd is typically a warzone, with many uneasy neighbours attempting to lay claim to the area. A large, dense urban area with a lot of loot. The waterway running along the main thoroughfare makes navigating from the north to the south difficult, especially under fire. Always keep your eyes up and ears open for any movement or sounds.Location2. Kamensk Military Base (Best for military gear) North of Severograd and deep into the forest is the Kamensk Military Base, a place most veteran survivors will avoid. While the possibility of rifles and ammo may make a rooky salivate, the base is a death trap. Its on the side of a hill, with more tree cover than the Amazon. The ground is covered in thick grass that a man can crouch through, and dont get me started on whats in the underground. Great place for high tier military loot spawns. Geography makes it easy for anyone to sneak into, use this to your advantage, but be just as wary of others using it. Underground bunkers carry dark lore implications I wont spoil. Great place for vehicle parts.Location1. Topolniki (Best for food and water) Topolniki is a small industrial town in the northwest that sits along the northern highway. An extremely quiet town that is rarely travelled, survivors would do well to take advantage of looting here and taking their time. The fields around Topolniki appear to be a magnet for helicopters, as several wrecks are usually spotted in the area. Helicopter crashes spawn regularly around the town. It sits alongside a river, and has many orchards in it for food and water. Barely travelled so the danger level is low. There is tons of industry around, for all your base building and vehicle needs. LocationAlso Be Sure To Read: [Top 10] DayZ Best Weaponsted in the area. Helicopter crashes spawn regularly around the town. It sits alongside a river, and has many orchards in it for food and water. Barely travelled so the danger level is low. There is tons of industry around the town. It sits alongside a river, and has many orchards in it for food and water. Barely travelled so the danger level is low. There is tons of industry around the town. It sits alongside a river, and has many orchards in it for food and water. Barely travelled so the danger level is low. There is to so and How To Get Them (2020 Edition)[Top 10] Best DayZ Loot LocationsTop 15 Games Etter Than DayZ in Their Own Way)Email us about this articleYou May Also Be Interested In: German EnglishIn this guide to Loot in DayZ, we'll tell you everything from spawn rates, best loot locations, loot zones, and more -- all freshly updated for the current version 1.23, which was released in October 2023. Loot in DayZ is a science in itself, with very few players keeping full track of it. To make sure that you are one of the players who do, we have written this guide. Here's what you can expect: Loot spawns in DayZ are applied to the map like a paintbrush. (How does Loot work?) The Tier Map explains where which Loot is located in DayZ. The best loot is now available again at the NWA in DayZ. With the help of the right tools you can always find exactly the right items. Loot distribution via MS-Paint? The developers have tagged Loot in DayZ, of which there are a total of 15 different ones. They then assigned a color code to these Loot tags and painted them on a map of Chernarus and Livonia. It may sound surprising, but yes, a paintbrush la Paint is used to distribute Loot in DayZ. But why is that important? With the help of the free program "DayZ Tools", which you can find in your Steam library, you can view every loot tag and its distribution. Unlike the interactive DayZ map, you can see exactly where each loot spawns, and as a server owner, you can even customize it. The DayZ Tools also show you the different loot zones on a tier map, of which there are four on Chernarus. This is probably the best known fact: Loot in DayZ is divided into different tiers. The weakest loot is found on the coast, the best in the far north. But there is much more to it! Hier siehst du, wie Loot in DayZ verteilt wird (Bsp: "Town Loot") Once again, we take a look at the DayZ tools and the map of Chernarus. You can see five different colored zones here. One zone along the coast, one zone directly behind it. A third in the heart of Chernarus, a fourth in the northwest of the map. Yes, and then there is a fifth zone, which is distributed on the map in spots. Tier 1: The first Loot Zone is located on the map in spots. food on the map here. Clothing in Tier 1 is colorful and flashy, weapons are scarce. Tier 2: In this zone, you will find a little less food and also the clothes remain colorful. On the other hand, clothes are more practical than skirts and pantsuits, jackets and jeans are often now. Tier 3: In this zone, you will find a little less food and also the clothes remain colorful. much less food than before. For the first time, clothing is no longer colorful, but available in practical green, brown and camouflage. The NW Airfield is also located in this zone. Also, many other military outposts, like at Vybor are located in here. So military equipment is the main focus. Tier 4: This loot zone covers only a small area in the northwest of the map around the military base of Tisy. Here you can find the best loot in the game, highly concentrated. To loot here, however, you should wear a protective suit against the toxic gases. Tier 5 Unique Loot: This category includes helicopter crash sites, dynamic trains and certain areas in big cities. Here you'll mainly find explosive ordnance like grenade launchers or material for explosive devices. Here are all the Loot Tiers/Zones in DayZ listed. In the current DayZ version 1.23 the best lootspot is clearly defined and you can find it at the North-West-Airfield. In the middle of the runway an AC-130 plane crashed, where you can find it at the North-West-Airfield. In the middle of the runway an AC-130 plane crashed, where you can find it at the North-West-Airfield. with the latest update to DayZ. More Lootspots with Top Tier Loot: Summer Camps Military camps Police Stations Tisy military gut can discover a Loot Finder. In this tool, you enter the item you want to find. Afterwards, the Loot Finder spits out all locations where you can find the desired item in DayZ. The tool is currently limited to the two official maps Chernarus and Livonia. Every tip mentioned in this guide has been practically tested by our team to ensure you receive reliable and accurate information. The developers describe the content like this: This game may contain content not appropriate for all ages, or may not be appropriate for viewing at work: Frequent Violence or Gore, General Mature Content DayZ is a multiplayer-focused sandbox game. Other players might behave unpredictably and impact the game experience significantly. Voice chat and text chat can be disabled from the in-game options menu. Please enter your birth date to continue: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 January February March April May June July August September October November December 1900 1901 1902 1903 1904 1905 1906 1907 1908 1909 1910 1911 1912 1913 1914 1915 1916 1917 1918 1919 1920 1921 1922 1923 1924 1925 1924 1925 $1926\ 1927\ 1928\ 1929\ 1930\ 1931\ 1932\ 1933\ 1934\ 1935\ 1936\ 1937\ 1938\ 1939\ 1940\ 1941\ 1942\ 1943\ 1944\ 1945\ 1946\ 1957\ 1958\ 1957\ 1957\ 1958\ 1957\ 1957\ 1958\ 1957$ 1988 1989 1990 1991 1992 1993 1994 1995 1996 1997 1998 1999 2000 2001 2002 2003 2004 2005 2006 2007 2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2023 2024 2025 DayZ is a zombie survival game that was released in 2013 by Bohemia Interactive, but even after all these years, it's still important to know where to find the best loot. After all, Bohemier Interactive can update the game as much as they want, but having all the weapons and tools to survive and defend yourself from the dead and living is all that matters. Naturally, the best way to do this is to know where to loot in DayZ and if you stick around too long in coastal areas where you spawn at first, you are likely to get killed. The reason for this is that most of the coastal areas only include Tier 1 gear and since it is a spawn area there are lots of players. Ultimately, you'll need to venture further in-field, but before you do, you might want to read out guide to the best loot locations in DayZ, which we're sure will come in handy. The Best Loot Locations In DayZKamenka Military Base Image Source: iZurvive DayZ Map The area with Kamenka has Tier 2 loot, so you are unlikely to find decent loot in the city. You can loot this Kamenka if you have necessities like water, a backpack, and food. You can loot this Kamenka has Tier 2 loot, so you are unlikely to find decent loot in the city. place and change their location randomly. These convoys contain a good amount of military equipment and you can find Military Zombies. After you pass the Kamenka you can proceed to the West from the main road (The beach should be on your left side). After a while you will see a Military Base, it doesn't have a name but is often referred to as Kamenka Military Base due to its proximity to Kamenka. There are 5 military tents here and you are likely to get some clothing upgrades and decent loot here. However, there are lots of zombies and players in this area. If you don't see any zombies nearby proceed carefully because there might be other players near the area. Myshkino Military Base Image Source: iZurvive DayZ Map Turn back where you came from after looting the Kamenka Military Base and proceed to the North by following the train rails (The beach should be on your back). After traveling for a long time you will reach a city called Zelenogorsk. This area contains Tier 3 loot and you can loot this city if you need food, drink, etc. After you are done here, follow the train tracks again, which will take you first to the West and then to the North. While following these tracks you may see Train Wrecks, these are random events just like Military Convoys. After a while, you will see a military base consisting of 8 military tents and 2 military containers on your right. It is called Myshkino Military Base and it contains Tier 3 loot, so you are likely to find better loot than in the previous military base, start following the train tracks North again and the train tracks will start heading to the right after crossing the second bridge. When the tracks turn to the right you can see Krona Castle in the distance, once you see it turn left and start running up the hill. After a while, you will find the Tri Kresta Military Base. This military base has the best loot in the game as it contains Tier 4 loot. Krona Castle Image Source: iZurvive DayZ Map You can loot Krona Castle after looting Tri Kresta or before you even get there. In Krona Castle you can find plenty of hunting rifles and bullets. Apart from that you can also find industrial items. Krona Castle is also a great place to build a base, so be cautious when proceeding in this area. Tisy Military Base Image Source: iZurvive DayZ Map Tisy Military Base contains some of the best loot you'll find in DayZ, but it's also extremely dangerous for exactly this reason. This area is one of the most active PvP areas in the game, and with Tier 4 loot, many players want to loot it. To find that the others, so you can use the iZurvive map to find your way around easily. Tisy Military Base contains 16 military tents and 6 military containers, and considering that these loots are Tier 4, you can leave here very satisfied. How To Find The Best Loot Locations In DayZ? Image Source: iZurvive DayZ Map There are many loot areas in DayZ with very good loot, but we can't cover them all in one article. The map is just too big! The 5 areas we've covered in this guide can be visited pretty soon after you've spawned. So it's a great place to get your hands on some good gear from the start. However, if you want to look for the best places to loot, the map in DayZ is divided into Tier 1, Tier 2, Tier 3, and Tier 4 loot zones, with Tier 4 loot containing the best loot. You can use the iZurvive interactive map, or the one above, to see these zones and understand the locations guide, thank you very much to the YouTube channel SeanK1 for the information he helped us with. If you want a more visual guide to finding the best loot in DayZ, you can check out SeanK1's video guide, just below. For more DayZ news, be sure to check out our dedicated section or take a look at some of our Guides & Tutorialsjust below: MAJOR NEWS - Latest Patch Notes |Next DayZ Update Leaks & News | SETTINGS GUIDES - How Long Does It Take For Loot To Respawn | Does DayZ Support Crossplay? |Is DayZ Good On The Steam Deck? GAME GUIDES - How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations |Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Craft, Recipe | Flag Pole Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations |Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot
Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Play Single-Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Player | Best DayZ Loot Locations | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Player | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Player | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Player | Blood Type Chart & Compatibility Guide: How To Player | Blood Type | B To Build, Kit Recipe, Radius | How To Regain Blood Quickly |How To Craft and Find Planks |How to Make A Splint |How to Cure Sickness |How to Rotate Inventory Items |How To Make Fire |How To Find Mime And Carnival Masks |How To Kill Yourself & Respawn in Dayz WEAPON GUIDES - Where to Find the M79 Grenade Launcher EVENTS - DayZ Christmas Event: Start Time, Rewards, & Weapons Share copy and redistribute the material for any purpose, even commercially. The licensor cannot revoke these freedoms as long as you follow the license, and indicate if changes were made . You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the license, and indicate if changes were made . You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the license, and indicate if changes were made . transform, or build upon the material, you must distribute your contributions under the same license as the original. No additional restrict others from doing anything the license permits. You do not have to comply with the license for elements of the material in the public domain or where your use is permitted by an applicable exception or limitation . No warranties are given. The license may not give you all of the permissions necessary for your intended use. For example, other rights such as publicity, privacy, or moral rights may limit how you use the material. Loot, die. Loot, die. Loot, die. This is the typica gameplay loop of any survival crafting game, but something about DayZ keeps you coming back for more, every time. Ask any veteran survivor and theyll tell you the tale of the map to the deafening silence of the west? Maybe they came across a long fought battle and scavenged the bodies for their spoils. Perhaps they even encountered a friendly person who offered them a rifle. These are just a small sample of the many ways you will come across loot in your time in the ruins of Chernarus, and to help you on your journey, Ive put together a list of my top fifteen places to gather loot, to give you the knowledge you need to get the edge on other survivors!15. Svetloyarsk (Best for early game) The start of your survival in Chernarus will start on a coastline, either the south or the east, and those spawning on the east are highly suggested to push north to end up in the medium-sized city of Svetloyarsk. A port city sitting on Guba Bay, the city holds some of the best locations to gear up with an easier chance of survival than one of the larger cities. This does not mean to be complacent, theres always a chance someone is nearby. The harbor itself has tons of cargo containing everything from clothes, to canned food, to even military gear. A large police station in town containing good clothes, ammo, and firearms such as CR-75s and CR-61 Scorpions. A medical center in town to let you stockpile bandages and medicine for your travels ahead. There is a decent chance of contact with other survivors here, as it is a possible spawn point, so be wary. Location 14. Rify (Best for late game) In the north-east of the country, a massive cargo ship ran aground at some point in the past few years, and its containers have been strewn around the rocky coastline. However, the ship carried a chemical weapon that has created a toxic fallout over the surrounding area, some even believe this is ground zero of the infection. Survivors wishing to explore the area must come heavily prepared. The cargo containers here are packed full of some of the rarest loot in the game, such as the illusive 40mm gas grenades. Anyone exploring this area will come away with a haul to tell your group about. Due to the gas, a set of NBC gear is required to enter this location. Only a few kilometres north of Berezino and a stones throw south-east of Svetloyarsk, this location is a possible hotspot for activity, and given the requirement of possessing a full set of NBC gear, only high geared players will be about. Location 13. Krasnostav/Northeast Airfield (Best for medical supplies) Located just to the southwest of our previous two locations, the sizable town of Krasnostav is home to a small police station, a supermarket, a medical centre, and a large airstrip. The airstrip itself has been converted to an ad hoc field hospital due to the anount of supplies, and the natural geography of the area, survivors entering the area must be wary of snipers. One of the most gear-diverse area in the game, with everything from basic supplies, to military rifles and equipment, in a two square kilometer location. Proximity to the coast, abundance of medical supplies, and largely hilly geography make it a hunting ground for skilled marksmen, and a near constant warzone. The geography also allows for you to enter relatively unnoticed from the south, as it backs up to dense forest from that direction. The town and field hospital are targets for sporadic chemical artillery attacks, watch for the flare and listen for the distant shots. Location 12. Radio Zenit (Best for early game) A major radio station broadcast from here for years, but as the outbreak occurred, it was requisitioned by the Chernarussian Defence Force to communicate to the region. Sometime after this, the freshly built outpost was overrun, and the ruins are all that remain, looming over the small town of Gorka. Tread lightly, as the bright red radio mast can be seen for miles, beckoning any survivor to it. Very good military loot spawn, with several tents, buildings, and vehicles. It sits atop a hill, which helps against far off snipers. The hilltop location also makes spotting people a bit harder when theyre coming from the station and town are targets for chemical weapon attacks. Location 11. Nadezhda (Best for hunting supplies) Nestled in the hills and forests of Chernarus are several holiday and summer camps, one of the best of which is Nadezhda. Located south of Novy Sobor, this camp is stocked with hunting gear and has a large medical center. Some believe an outbreak may have occurred early on here, as the CDF seems to shell it with chemical weapons rather regularly. The small size allows you to clear it out fast and easily. It is relatively out of the way, so the chance of meeting other survivors is relatively low. Chemical weapon attacks are a large military installation that is fully abandoned, filled instead with infected. The military is constantly bombarding it with chemical attacks in a feeble attempt to either quell the outbreak, or to dissuade would be scavengers from entering. This is the El Dorado of Chernarus, you must be fully geared and ready to fight if you want to get into, and out of Tisy alive. The ultimate in loot locations, dozens of military buildings spread over the base. Massive amount of ground to cover in this nearly two square kilometer installation. The trek alone will take close to an hour from spawn to the base, not counting the looting youll need to do to get geared enough to survive. The survivors here will be heavily armed and should always be treated as hostile.Location9. Northwest Airfield/Vybor Air Base (Best for military gear) The largest military installation by area, and the most dangerous for combat. Long, open sightlines and minimal cover make it a death trap for those without the knowledge of field combat. This, coupled with the near constant CDF chemical artillery shelling, makes it a place of death and destruction. Survivors entering are warned. Massive amount of loot, second only to Tisy. Extremely dangerous place where you will come under fire. Avoid the runways themselves, as they have no cover. Loot quickly and quietly, always looking and listening. Location 8. SKVSCh Biathlon Arena (Best for food) Sitting well above the clouds in the far west, Saint Roman is the highest point you can get to, naturally anyway. Built around it is the small sports city of the SKVSCh Biathlon Arena, a place once heralded for its competitions and tests of skill. Now, it sits abandoned, but there is still a good amount of gear strewn about. Very rarely trafficked, so there is little chance of danger.Good amount of food and medical supplies.Interesting and unique area.Location7. Sinistok is a tiny town situated in the grasslands. A farming community before the outbreak, Sinistok is a tiny town situated in the grasslands. trees. Be wary as this is a common route to Tisy. Typically a quiet town with tons of food and civilian gear. There is a decent chance of encountering other survivors, as the town is on the way to the back entrance to Tisy. Natural geography gives a great spot to the north to overwatch the town. Location 6. Pavlovo Military Base (Best for late game) Just inland to the far southwest is the town of
Pavlovo, and its military base. Many claim there to be deeply hidden government secrets here, as the chemical gas has never dissipated from the area. Guaranteed to be full of high quality military equipment. Anyone willing to search must have a full set of NBC gear to enter. It is home to multiple barracks, several workshops, and one of the few actual hospitals in the region. Low chance of other survivors, given the requirement to wear NBC gear. There is a chance to find gas grenades, a rare and extremely strong weapon that can clear an entire building. Location 5. Chernogorsk (Best for early game) Easily the largest city in the region, and one of the most populated as well, Chernogorsk is the regions capital. Cherno, with itsa massive port full of long forgotten cargo containers, plus hundreds of buildings, has over five square kilometers of area for you to search through. There is an immeasurable amount of possible places to loot. Large spawn area, so you will encounter other survivors. The port area alone is full of too many cargo containers to loot on your own.Location4. Berezino (Best for early game) On the eastern coastline lies a sizable town has a good sized port, a railyard, and an overall industrial town holds a massive orchard of apple trees for you to stock up on food.Spawn town, be careful of others.Massive orchards make for easy food.Dock and railyard carry a large amount of loot.Location3. Severograd (Best for food and clothes) The northern highway is the longest and straightest route to the west. Those making the trek will find the city of Severograd an enticing place to stop at gear up for the rest of the journey. Be warned: Severograd is typically a warzone, with many uneasy neighbours attempting to lay claim to the south difficult, especially under the south difficult, especially under the south difficult. fire.Always keep your eyes up and ears open for any movement or sounds.Location2. Kamensk Military Base (Best for military gear) North of Severograd and deep into the forest is the Kamensk Military Base, a place most veteran survivors will avoid. While the possibility of rifles and ammo may make a rooky salivate, the base is a death trap. Its on the side of a hill, with more tree cover than the Amazon. The ground is covered in thick grass that a man can crouch through, and dont get me started on whats in the underground. Great place for high tier military loot spawns. Geography makes it easy for anyone to sneak into, use this to your advantage, but be just as wary of others using it. Underground bunkers carry dark lore implications I wont spoil. Great place for vehicle parts. Location 1. Topolniki is a small industrial town in the northern highway. An extremely quiet town that is rarely travelled, survivors would do well to take advantage of looting here and taking their time. The fields around Topolniki appear to be a magnet for helicopters, as several wrecks are usually spotted in the area. Helicopter crashes spawn regularly around the town. It sits alongside a river, and has many orchards in it for food and water. Barely travelled so the danger level is low. There is tons of industry around, for all your base building and vehicle needs.LocationAlso Be Sure To Read: [Top 10] DayZ Best Weapons and How To Get Them (2020 Edition) [Top 10] DayZ Best Base Locations And Why They're So Good [Top 10] BEST DayZ Loot LocationsTop 15 Games Editer Than DayZ in Their Own Way)Email us about this articleYou May Also Be Interested In: Reddit and its partners use cookies to deliver and maintain our services and site, improve the quality of Reddit, personalize Reddit content and advertising, and measure the effectiveness of advertising. By rejecting non-essential cookies, Reddit may still use certain cookies to ensure the proper functionality of our platform. For more information, please see our Cookie Notice and our Privacy Policy.

Military loot dayz. Dayz military loot guide. Dayz best military loot locations livonia. Best military loot dayz. Dayz best loot locations. Dayz military loot locations.