As the United States of America celebrates the day of the independence on July 4th, it is important to notice the nation was founded on the idea that God created human beings to be free. The declaration of independence affirms that people are endowed by the creator of certain inalienable rights, which among these are life, freedom and happiness search. ¢ But what is the Freedom A, A, Exactly? Freedom is based on the country where you live, or can he have a deeper meaning? Here are some key ideas of the Bible about Freedom is a theme found throughout the Bible, from the genesis to the Apocalypse. Only three chapters from the history of God's creation, humanity gave up his freedom to choose to rebel against God. From that moment on, the perfect freedom God created in the garden of A moment on the long-term effects were both physical and spiritual. The Old Testament of the Bible records how people goda have lost their time their fansical freedom and again as several importantly they have reached them (especially the Egyptians, as recorded in the book of the SaoXodo). The loss of physical freedom was often linked to the spiritual disobedience as worshiping false gods. But one and again, the only true God forgave his people and rescued them. When God has released the Israelites of slavery in Egypt, he was foreseing the arrival of Jesus Christ, who came to the free humanity of the Sina of the spiritual slavery without realizing it. They chase false gods of money, success, personal comfort and lovely comfort only to realize that they still have a void that cane t be filled by any of these things. >> Everyone loves something. When Jesus began his short period of ministry on Earth, he announced that it was what people GOD S was waiting for from the fall of humanity. He did this for reading a certain passage from Isaiaha's book a passage his listeners knew was referring to the Messiah, or the Savior of the world. The words had been written hundreds of previous years and spoke of a new freedom that was to come in the future. When Jesus got up to read, he was saying that the future has come. Freedom would come through him. A and the book of the prophet Isaãas was given to him. He unrolled the parchment and found the place in which it was written: A ¢ The spirit of the Lord is over me, A, a, A, because he has anointed to the, to proclaim the good new Poor. He sent me to proclaim freedom to the captives to, the, and restoration of the sight to the blind, A \tilde{a} , to, to liberty the oppressed, to proclaim the year In favor. $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{M}$ s Lorda If he closed the book and gave it to the assistant and sat down. And everyone's eyes on the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to tell them: $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$ Today this Scripture was fulfilled in his Hearing $\hat{A} \notin \hat{a} \in (Luke \ 4: 17-21, added \ to be$ added). >> Short Devotion Read Billy Grahaman ¢ S, a truth brings Freedom. A ¢ 3. Jesus came to free us from death, sin and all that enslaves us. The central message of the Christian Faitha The gospel is that Jesus Christ releases us from the slavery of sin and offers true freedom in this life and in addition. This is what Jesus said: A ¢ Because God loved the world, who gave his unigenate son, so that everyone who believes in him does not perish, but he has Lifesty (John 3:16). The Good Newsa The Best Evera News is that the FAN © Jesus frees us from death we deserve to sin against God. He frees us from the punishment that it would be inflicted on us at the end of our lives for the things WEA ever thought and done. While the followers of Christ still struggle with sin, they are not more for him. Through power power Christ, your people can be released from the slavery of the covet, vanity, pride, pornography, votes, abusive behavior, gluttony, selfishness ¢ and any other sin under the sun. Here-it's what Jesus said about the freedom he offers: One if you remain in my word, you are truly my disciplers, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free, you will be indeed ¢ free (John 8: 34-36). >> Powerful Message Watch Billy Grahamanians, a truth and freedom, esquire from its 1969 New York Cross. 4. God gives us freedom to accept the freedom to accept the freedom to accept or reject their salvation. But the Bible warns that hell is a real place, where real people end when they consciously reject the truth. Likewise, those who choose Christ is not forced to obey it in every turn. But God makes it clear: the best life is a dedicated that are dedicated to honor you. As the apostle Paul explained to some of the first Christians: A to all things are Liquita Me, a, but not all things come with. A ¢ all things are lucitly to me, but I will not be dominated by Anything ¢ (1 Corinthians 6:12). A ¢ Because you were called in liberty, brothers. Just do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, before the love will serve you anotherman (Gallats 5:13). >> What is a judgment, and why did Jesus have to die for our sins? Listen to Billy Grahaman's message. Final considerations on cover freedom The cover, Godà & Word points to freedom in Christ. And God do not let us know how to grasp the freedom the choice of Jesus and follow it daily. It can only break the basses of slavery and take us to real freedom, now and forever. Choose Jesus today, and find out what true freedom in Christ. It is the freedom that Christians have in Jesus. But before I do this, I need to talk about the law. A lot of people in groups such as the Church of Jesus Christ of Saints of the Last Days and Jehovahan Witnesses to live under a set of laws and social expectations that can be sufficient to their behavior, attitude, appearance, and follow a set of rules, then there can be little freedom to live, to make mistakes, and grow It is, instead, it lives in light fear. There is a result in a system of the Church where the appearance is important, where the failure is despised, and where his social status depends on his abroad Godliness. A, therefore, in such churches, people go to put in a good face, a suitable smile, and not really share themselves on their lives. Such attitudes are stiff. It is a good thing that Jesus loves us despite that we are, despite our imperfections.ã, Jesus does not love us because we are sincere. Instead, he loves us because of who he is, not because of who we are. 1 John 4:19, Ã ¢ We love, because He loved us first. God is holy, beautiful, pure, infinite, just, and as Scripture says, a God is love, A (1 John 4: 8). a Nature of love is another centered and sacrificial (John 15:13). And, God loves us because of him, not because of us.ã, in other words, God loves us for all that is not of who we are. Therefore, when we love God, it is an answer to His first to love us. And just as the love of God for nor conditioning them. But whenever there is a religious system that does not defend the true gospel (the loving sacrifice of Christ), then there is no real admission of God. And because he is not really alive within the person, the person has to keep laws and orders to compensate for the difference. He or she has to perform properly, has to do the right, and keep this lifestyle to be fully accepted as a proper and spiritually mature person. replace the truth for regulations. They do this because they do not understand that regulations, these laws of purity that should keep being acceptable to each other and to God, reveal their lack of true freedom in Christ. There is a simple principle found in the scriptures that are applicable here. 1 Timetheo 1: 9 Å ¢ â € œComing the fact that the law is not made for a just person, but for those who are without law and rebellious, for the peculiars and sinners | They try to consider the laws of God to be forgiven from their sins. If that were the case, the salvation would be based on our capacity. It would also mean that God would be demonstrating favoritism by "reflecting" Someone who was "good enough." Instead, the law is a guide to the true Christian. The law hat to do or do not do. But it is not our maintenance of the law that makes us right before God - or before the other. Romans 3:28 Å ¢ â, ¬ Å "To affirm that a man is justified by the Fan's part of the works of the Law. The Romans 4: 5 Å ¢ € ¬" But for the one who It works, but believes in it that justified by the fan, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. (By The Way, justification It is the condition of being fair of God according to the law.) But when we are Christian, we are indifferent to the Lord Jesus (John 14:23). He lives in us and because he does, we do not need this law. We have it. It does not mean that there is no problem in breaking the law of God. We should not steal. We should not lie. But when Christ lives in us and when we experience his love and presence, then NOS "Accidentally" Keep the law because God's love flows out of our hearts. Loving God and loving our vizo is the Freedom. Freedom in Christ Luke 4:18 â € "The spirit of the Lord is on me, because he anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor. He sent me to proclaim the release for the captives, and the recovery of the vision for the blind, to release those who are overwhelmed. John 8:32 Ã ¢ â € ¬E Son releases you, it will be free of fact. Acts 13: 38-39 Ã ¢ â € ¬ ¬ Anthes, let it be known for you, brothers who are through his forgiveness of the sins is proclaimed to you, 39 and through him all who believe Being released from all things, from which you could not be released through that Christ has set forth; Therefore, continue firm and not subject to a slavery yoke again. One of the signs of being a true Christian, besides believing in the true Gospel, is experiencing a sense of freedom. We realize that we do not have to maintain the law to please God. We realize that the favor of God on us does not depend on our obedience, or our law. The favor of God is about us is because of what Christ did on the cross. So we are free. We are free to drink café, drink tea, watch a movie, dance, laugh, have a drink, and enjoy life. Yes, we are free to do these things and other things ... but without sin. At the our freedom Means that we should not abuse our freedom Means that we should not abuse our freedom means that we should not abuse our freedom. A we should not abuse our freedom means that we should not abuse our freedom. A we should not abuse our freedom means that we should not abuse our freedom. A we should not abuse our freedom means that we should not abuse our freedom means that we should not abuse our freedom. A we should not abuse our freedom means that we should not abuse our freedom. A we should not abuse our freedom means that we should not abuse our freedom. affects God-s S to wherefore, because his attitude is of love and acceptance that is guaranteed by the sacrifricence of Christ. But, this does not mean that he won \hat{A} ¢ t discipline nonsense. After all, God discipline those to whom he loves (Hebrews 12: 6). We must be careful not to use our freedom for no one to stumble more. Romans 14: 21-22, it is good not to eat meat, nor drink wine, nor do other things when your brother, I will never eat flesh, so that I do not It will make my brother to Stumble. â € Gallats 5:13, Å ¢ Because you were called freedom, brothers; Unique not turning your freedom on an opportunity for the flesh, before the love I serve you a few more. Å ¢ These are, in a sense, the laws of the New Testament. But think about what they are, love God and to love the next (mat. 22: 37-40). They are a call to express the love that you would have from God to your brothers and sisters in Christ. You should not abuse your freedom and so lead you to stumble in your fan. To die with Christ at the law there is a concept that many Christians are not conscious. I usually teach them so that they can experience more the freedom they have in Jesus. The concept is simple. As Christians, we are already died with Christ and therefore we also died to the law. This means that the law has no more jurisdiction on us. Romans 7: 1, 4, 6, or do not know, sisters (because I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominance on man while he lives a | 4? Therefore, my brothers, were also made to die for the law by the body of Christ, so that you can be associated with another, the one who has risen from the law, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we were connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we demos fruit to Godà ¢ | . 6 But now we were released from the law, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that I can live for what we mere connected, so that we mere connec God. 20 I am already crucified with Christ; And there is no way I live, but Christ lives in me; and the life that now alive in the flesh, I live in the fles with Christ (Romans 6: 6). Therefore, we are released from the Law. Romans 7: 4, one therefore, my brothers, were also made to die for the law by the body of Christ, so that you may be associated with another, the one who has resurrected Among the dead, so that fruit for God. A & all things are Liquitics 1 Corinthians 6:12, to all things are Liquita me, but not all things come. All things are lucitly, but I will not let me dominate by anything. Â € The reason that all things are Liquitos for us, as Christians, is because we die for the law and the law has no jurisdiction on us. That means we're incredibly free. We are free to try to please God and fail and realize that our failures will not sever our relationship with him, nor at risk our salvation. We are truly free to succeed and fail.ã, we are free to love God and love the next. We are free to have fun, not to be perfect, not to please our friends in the Church for social acceptance, and achieve worheading.ã, spiritual We are free to have fun, not to be perfect. live life and do not live in fear. We are free from the requirements of the law and so we are free to rest in Christ. Matthew 11:28, Ã ounce to me, all that you are €
