Hinduism is often described as a religion of fasts, feasts, and festivals. They are organized according to the Hindu lunisolar calendar, which is different than the Gregorian calendar used in the West. There are 12 months in the Hindu calendar, with the new year falling between mid-M	forch and mid April on the Western colondar. This list organizes important Hindu festivals and holy days according to the Gregorian calendar for the years 2019 through 2025. The first day of the Gregorian calendar brings Kalpataru Divas, when the faithful celebrate the life of Ramakrishna, one of the most influential Hindu holy men of the 19th ce celebrants build bonfires to celebrate the harvesting of winter crops, and Republic Day, which commemorates the day that the Indian Constitution was adopted in 1950.
