The film is produced by Production House Fox Star Studios. The soundtrack album incorporates various genres. The title track worked as a promotional single and the album was released on July 10, 2020 through Sony music. At the time of release, the album received mixed reviews from music critics, who praised its orchestration, duet collaborations and harmonies, but stressed unusual texts and musical overproduction. Development The music and the original score is composed by A. R. Rahman. Rahman formally announced his association with the film and label Sony Music Entertainment in September 2018. [1] In February 2019, the film was renamed to Dil Becara while Rahman recorded the song incorporating the titled "Dil Becara". Rucha Pathak, Fox Star Studios' CCO, said that the title track was a "numer of vibrant and fun," adapted to the theme of the film. [2] According to an interview with Faridoon Shahyr at Bollywood Hungama, Chhabra was the casting director for 99 Songs (also called by Rahman), where he told the script of "Dil Bechara". Rahman, he loved Chhabra's idea and honesty on the film and agreed within five minutes to compose the score and soundtrack. While Rahman began conceptualizing the soundtrack, he was assisted by Hriday Gattani, who served as a musical supervisor. [3] Within two weeks, Rahman was ready with melodies. "Mein Tumhara" was among the first recorded songs and "Maskhari" was the last. [3] By June 2019, 5 or 6 songs had been composed. [4] On October 19, 2019, Rahman, through his official Twitter handle, wrote on Twitter about the mixing of the current album. [5] [6] In July 2019, Udit Narayan recorded a track for the soundtrack, [7], but was not chosen in the final soundtrack. In an interview with The Indian Express, singer Poorvi Koutish stated that she had recorded vocals on the title track and "Mera Naam Kizzie". [8] [9] According to Rahman, the entire album was edited to symbolize heart feelings and would be associated with the memories of the late actor. [10] The song "Dil Bechara" is a song describing the celebration of high and low life. Life.The trace "Khulke Jeena Ka" is an adaptation of the Tamil composition not published by Rahman "Kannil Oru Thali". The director was quoted as said, "the musical album is an emotional rollercoaster of romance, friendship and the odds imposed against two young people in love." [11] The song "Taare Ginn" presents "heard by the protagonists at the beginning of love. [12] During the interaction through his Twitter account, a fan of Rahman indicated a song used in the film. It was titled "Don't say goodbye", and appeared as part of the final credits. In response to the tweet of the fan, Rahman accepted to complete the track. [13] Rahman wrote the texts in English on the song sung by Ar Ameen. It was released on 2 September 2020. [14] Referring to the disappearance of the actor, Ameen expressed: " Goodbyes are never easy. But they also mark new beginnings. You heard a part of this song in Dil Bechara and you showered with a lot of love that we had to complete it and present it to you all. " [15] The list of songs was released by AR Rahman through his official Twitter account the 6 July 2020. [16] All tracks are written by Amitabh Bhattacharya. [18] The Indian Express greeted the song "A Rahman Firma Appeal". [18] [18] The songs "Taare Ginn" and "Khulke Jeena Ka" have been released as individuals on 17 July [20] and 19 July 2020. [21] The Umesh Pandani music critic of Koimoi rated the album 3 of 5 stars, stating "All Said and Done, The Lyric Department in most of the songs are asked." [22] Uday Bhatia of Mint opinted that the soundtrack It has something like a touch of healing, an enveloping heat of melody, harmony and familiarity, calling him the warmest soundtrack of Rahman. [23] In its review for scroll.in, devarsi ghosh entitled the review of the album: "lovable and catchy tunes with a ring of pathos"; However, he defined some of the compositions commanted by overproduction. [24] Srinivas Ramanujam of the Hindu said: "AR Rahman delivers an incandescent belch in Sushant Singh Rajput [...] with an album that affects an agreement during the first listening, a slightly unusual phenomenon for a composer whose works are Usually known to 'grow up of you ". [25] Sankhayan Ghosh of Film Companion Magazine said: "A AR Album that hits the sweet Spot between 'What Works' and 'Something New' [...] presenting exquisite duets. "[26] In his review for Zoom TV, Gaurang Chauhan awarded the album 3.5 (out of 5), calling it "animal, melodious and novel. Props to AR Rahman and Amitabh Bhattacharya. On the contrary, Rohit Mehrotra of Bloomberg Quint stated: "Rahman still fails to impress with 'Dil Bechara' [...] while some songs of the movie hit the right notes, some do not."
