History 9.0 Active / Cast Music 8.0 7.0 8.0 Value feedback 1) The reason why I watched this: I did not know that the Taiwanese dramas existed until I did not watch this. I'm a big fan of "Itazura Na Kiss": I read the manga, watched and totally loved the souls then I saw all the drama adaptation: this was the last incarnation I saw. 2) Story / Plot: This drama has the most close adaptation of the manga; literally it followed him without much change. It was true that made it enjoyable. 3) Act / Casto: As I said before this was my first Tw-dramas so back then I had no familiarity with the cast, but I liked the acting more than supporting roles were extremely impressive with all the stories side. 4) Music: do not actually remember the music of course, but I think it was nice. 5) rediscovery of value: one of the smaller dramas that sometimes control. If you regard the plays, definitely you riguarderai this. 6) The final: he was extremely good the guy that everyone wants to see while watching a drama, but would not call it an "End" since there is a second season. 7) Overall: I am not so in the Chinese language, but as I watch this drama I completely forgot my despised and focused on the story. Basically, if you're a fan of Itazura na kiss you have to watch this. Read more This review has been you help? Air Force Sgt. The voltage pucker are for family members or for people who are obliged to kiss, but maintain separate and slightly soft mouth communicates a sense of openness. 2 Do some soft kiss. Start slowly with a soft and gentle kisses and skip the tongue and teeth à per hour. If your partner seems receptive, you can move on to the French kiss. Try to avoid letting your lips crashing. The noise can be distracted, and could break your immersion in the moment. If you find yourself smacking, slows down and put a little 'more of her lips. At the beginning you are the light. Avoid breaking the lips against the mouth of your appointment à per hour. Kissing softly and gently gives the other person a chance to stop if it is inconvenient, as well as to measure the interest in her. [3] 3 Staying at a manageable level of saliva. The Slobbery puppies are the last thing you want your Think while you kiss him or her. Avoid this destiny by swallowing the excess saliva from time to time. If you notice that the lips are a little too wet, pull away and discreetly purse them to bring the extra spit back into the mouth. 4 lips "Lock". If your initial kisses have gone well, try a lip lock, which can lead to tighter kisses (and it is a nice door for the French kiss). In substance, substance,"Switch off" the lips so that (for example) it seems this: The lower lip of your partner and 'lower lip The upper lip beginning of your partner, put the bottom lip of your partner between your bet is safer. Most people have bigger lips, making them more easy to gently grasp his lips. 5 Be sure to breathe. Ideally, you will be able to gently breathe through your nose while you're kissing. If you can not, though, to get away for a second to take a breath. Do not feel conscious of being out of breath or having to pause for a second. Breathing hard is an indication that you're nervous and excited, that your partner will probably find flattering. 6 Use your hands. Do not let your hands hang at your sides like two limp fettuccini noodles à put them to good use! [5] Put your hands lightly on the shoulders of your partner or around his waist. (In Western culture, girls usually get their hands on a guys shoulder while putting his hands around her waist.) Bring the intimacy of a notch by pulling your partner anymore. Put your hands on the sides of the face of him, using his thumb to sweep through the zigoma, or put a hand under her chin and tilt it upward. [6] Another very sensual move is to put both hands around the back of the head of your partner and slip them into his hair, pulling gently. 7 Try language. Once you're in a lip lock with her lower lip between both of your partner, gently running his tongue over it. If you can move slowly, even better. Find out how your partner responds. If he or she presses more or returns the gesture, it's probably clear to continue to increase the intensity of the kiss. If your date pulls away, maybe it's better to pull the tongue back for now and stick to only kisses the lips. [7] 8 Try the French kiss (optional). Use the tongue during a kiss it is, in Western culture, referred to as a French kiss. Why 'French receive credit? Who knows! Here's how to start: Hold your tongue inside the lower lip of your partner. Try to move slowly and gently at first, increasing the speed and pressure if your partner seems to respond well. Slide the tip of the tongue inside the mouth of your partner and move it gently on the tip of his tongue. Use light movements, darting and keep the language in motion à zoppicamente leaving it sit in your partner's mouth is not attractive and will bring a quick end to the kiss. [8] Try the deepest and most difficult shots if your partner seems responsive. Mix 9. Do not feel obligated to keep the intensive activities of the language being forever. Alternate soft and hard, slow and fast, deep and shallow. You can also return to using only the lips for a few minutes. By alternating the technique, your partner will be able to predict what comes next. Keeping this sense of surprise and spontaneity helps your kisses avoid becoming dieting. 10 Intensely nibblichì the lips of your partner (optional). The teeth are not a necessary element of the kiss, but a pasture on the lip of your partner can introduce another unexpected element. Here are some quick pointers: Keep the most lightly as possible. Remember that you are aiming to bite, do not bite. Move slowly. Again, keep your delicate rhythm will help to prevent accidentally chomping on the lip of your partner. When the lips are closed, place the teeth on the lower lip of your partner and slowly pull back until the teeth are almost at the end of the lip. Pause for a moment, then resume the kiss as usual. Do not break too much bitter. Be an occasional Perk, not the main attraction. Get ready for refusal. Not everyone likes one side of teeth with their kisses. If your partner does not respond well, try not to be too offended à € "it is probably a matter of personal taste, not a lack in your technique. 11 Increase intensity with occasional breaks. Pull away for a moment to look into your partner's eyes, whispering something in the ear of him, ear. Just catch your breath and wonder of your fortune. [9] Instead of putting a damper action, these small moments can actually make the kiss more intimate. It gives your partner the way you see yourself as a whole person, and not just something to kiss. 1 Make sure your breath is fresh and clean miny. Of course, you practice good oral hygiene, but if you have doubts about your breath, take a little mint breathed before the kiss. Make sure you finish the mint or gum before locking lips. [1] Be careful, since © several minutes may leave a bad prestoggetto and worsen breathing. Water is the best bet! It leaves no aftertaste, rinfrescarne mouth and leaves you thirsty. 2 Move close to kiss with confidence. Try to kiss their cheek to turn heads your way. Once you have chosen the right time to kiss someone, there's not addressed, especially if it's your first time he kissed that particular person. Being decisive and secure If the person does not want the kiss, he or she will make you know, but until then, you act like you're a professional. [2] 3 Set the mood. If you truly want your kiss is passionate, you will need to set the right mood. This does not mean you have to throw rose petals everywhere and light candles percent, but you should be a place without many distractions, so you can be focused on the other (and your passionate kiss). 1 lean in and sparking his head slightly. Leaning to the signals that you want to kiss the person, and tilting her head keeps you from crushing his nose against the other person. 2 Start slowly. Do not try to push your tongue into your partner's mouth immediately. Just press your lips against them. Close your eyes as you do to increase intimacy and to avoid watching the pores on your partner's nose. Imagine that your eyes are controlled by a dimmer switch. Listen to what is making your partner with your mouth and try to copy their movements. [3] 3 Let dwell between kisses. Kiss your partner once, slowly, letting it last for a few seconds. Then slowly draw your lips, keeping them close enough to your partner's lips so that they are almost touching (but are not). This will help to build persistent passion and really capture the full attention of your partner (Pfift, as if you had not already). 4 Open your lips slightly. Once accepted the kiss, try to slightly open your lips. If the other person follows suit, try slightly changing the opening of your lips (both more than less open) throughout the kiss. You might want to explore the lips and tongue of the person a bit 'with the tip of your tongue. There are no rules; Just try to make your movements smooth. Keep in mind that there's a fine line between passionate kiss and a fest Droool. To assess how they should be wet your kisses, kisses the back of your hand as you would like him to kiss your partner, and slightly opening your lips. You should leave a slight amount of moisture that dries in seconds. If you see more of this, or leaves a big wet circle on your hand, you have run out, calling him. [4] 5 Consider the French kiss. As the kiss progresses, you may want to try the French kiss, which include your slight tongue in your partner's mouth and leaves dancing with your partner's language. [5] 1 be sensually aggressive. After kissing for a while ', you should try to get a little' more adventurous. Between kisses, gently biting the bottom lip of your partner, leaving grazing teeth à à lip as you walk away. (Do not suck or bite their lip too strong, unless they are not really into this). [6] 2 Try a neck. If things are going well, To make it push a little by moving your head to kiss and slightly kill your partner's neck or other places you want. 3 Keep your arms occupied. Rarely, perhaps never, see a big kiss in which the participants only leave their arms hang to their sides. At least, embraces your partner and pull it gently gently You. È anche possibile eseguire le mani attraverso i capelli del vostro partner; o accarezza la sua schiena, i lati, o altre parti del corpo. [7] Avvolgere le braccia intorno al tuo partner può anche essere un grande turn! Dove mette le vostre mani dovrebbe essere determinato dallo stato del vostro rapporto, i vostri desideri e i segnali del vostro partner, sia parlato o comunicato non verbalmente. 4-4 Prova un bacio di dieci secondi. Alcuni trovano che un bacio di almeno dieci secondi di durata legara appassionaten due persone più di un bacio più brief. Tieni il bacio per più a lungo, regolando la Respirazione e tenendo gli occhi chiusi. [8] 5 Non lasciatevi distrarre da nulla. Che si tratti di fuochi d'artificio che vanno dietro di voi (un po'; sarebbe un ottimo memento per un bacio appassionato) o persone che camminano vicino a voi all'aeroporto (bittersweet, un bel addio, o una riunione epica?) non dovrete lasciarvi distrarre. If I kept intorno mentre basin, il tuo partner probabilmente si senseà un po' rigettato e la passione-o-metro sicuramente cadere. Non importa quello che sta accadendo, mantenere la vostra attenzione sul bacio e sul vostro partner e lasciare che nulla ti distrağa - nulla dovrebbe affascinare più della sensazione di basinare.
